Explore the scientific benefits of vision, meaning, gratitude & the counter intuitive techniques that disrupt negative mental perceptions & increase innovation, drive & performance.

02 ADAPT TO STRESS

There are two main components to adapting to change & the stress that comes with it. “Embrace And Upgrade” and “Rest And Recover.”

Through these two components we can learn how to avoid the “crash and burn” cycle by converting fear-based habits to positive lifestyle patterns.

Mark and his team must stay hypersensitive to change, continually reassessing conditions, refocusing goals, and updating strategies.

With this Agility, Mark and his team can overcome all challenges and succeed in surfing the world's biggest waves.

Mark Mathews and his “Life Beyond Fear” keynote was, by far, the most captivating, enthralling, and engaging motivational speech I have attend in my 25 year career.

Never have I sat so still and listened so intently to a speaker at a Las Vegas sales meeting – I literally dropped my coffee and could not take my eyes of the stage as he told his amazing story, and connected his reality with our daily life. Change is the only constant in my industry – Mark Mathews uses his amazing story of adversity, learnings and personal journey – to help us all see a path forward through change. I’ve never been more thankful for life’s little inconveniences. Mark Mathews story reminds us all to be grateful for all we have.

I first heard Mark’s thought provoking story seven years ago. Just recently Mark attended my leadership meeting and shortly after a session with the executives from our Partner community. The feedback from both sessions was exceptional. Mark’s story of resilience, gratefulness and authenticity stops and makes you think. Mark is an extreme sports legend and a great guy.

I have worked with many speakers over the years and Mark is by far one of the best. His powerful stories, excellent visuals and relaxed, authentic delivery had the audience captivated right from the start. His advice was simple, honest and most importantly - actionable. I have never received so much positive feedback about a guest speaker than I have following Mark’s session. In fact, it was so positive, we immediately engaged him for another event. I have absolutely no hesitation in recommending Mark and I sincerely hope I get to hear many more of his awesome stories.

The standout of our entire event. He was highly engaging, extremely moving and delivered in a personal way that greatly endeared him to the many thousands in the audience. He was also able to ensure that the audience had some key takeaways and processes to apply and help them achieve their next success.
